

From: Ray Ross
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/25/02 1:38pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I don't like the proposed Settlement. Giving Microsoft software to schools costs Microsoft little, and further increases their monopoly. I think they should be required to pay a large cash penalty that the schools can then use to buy what computer equipment and software that they (the schools) see fit.

Thank you,

Raymond Ross